Flames Hit Gladstone:

Fire Razes Two Buildings

Fire that destroyed two business buildings on Delta Ave. near the heart of Gladstone's business district Tuesday evening scattered flaming embers widely over the area, for a time causing fear of a general conflagration.

Valiant work of firemen and volunteers brought the blaze under control in about two hours.

Damage was estimated at between $500,000 and $700,000. The fire was the most costly in Delta County in many years. Completely destroyed were the Swenson Brothers furniture store at 915 Delta Ave. and Wally's Tavern at 917 Delta Ave.

Heard Explosion

The fire was discovered a few minutes after 6 o'clock and shortly thereafter the furniture store interior was engulfed in flames.

Cause of the fire has not been determined as yet, but it apparently started in the rear of the furniture store. Clerks at the Central Pharmacy nearby said they heard an explosion and saw the windows of the furniture store blow outward.

Whipped by winds that gusted up to 20 miles an hour from the west and northwest, the burning buildings created an inferno that for a time threatened the whole area.

Firemen and equipment were rushed to the scene. Officers kept traffic moving and closed off the critical area.

Power poles burned off and portions of the community were without electricity for a time.

Gladstone had two fire trucks, Escanaba sent two of its trucks over, plus firemen and equipment from Masonville and Brampton. The County Road Commission sent a couple of tank trucks. Officers of the State Police, Sheriff's department, Escanaba police and Conservation Department assisted.

The Conservation Department sent its pumper to help boost the water pressure, which dropped when the fire hoses were attached to the city system. Volunteers went through the city turning off hoses that watered lawns to aid in halting the dropping water pressure.

There was praise from many quarters for the Escanaba firemen, who moved into the smoke and flames at the rear of the buildings, working from

Inland Steel Boosts Sheet, Strip Prices

WASHINGTON (AP) — Inland Steel Co. of Chicago boosted its prices for sheet and strip metal by $2 to $3 a ton Tuesday and top White House officials immediately huddled to study the situation.

Gardner Ackley, chairman of President Johnson's Council of Economic Advisers, summoned other officials for a strategy session shortly after Inland's announcement — which apparently caught the administration by surprise.

Asked later about the meeting, Ackley said the council is "studying" the situation but did not comment further.

Inland Chairman Joseph L. Block announced the price increase — described by company officials as "moderate" — at the end of the business day. It was not immediately clear whether other big steel producers would follow Inland's lead.

In Pittsburgh Tuesday night, U.S. Steel officials said they had no comment.

Block, asked if Inland would roll back its price increase if other firms didn't follow suit, said, "We will have to see."

Sheet and strip metal account for roughly 30 per cent of the industry's total output. If other firms match Inland's increase, it would amount to the widest industry boost since 1963.

Earlier this year Inland became involved in a major clash between the industry and the Johnson administration prompted by Bethlehem Steel Corp.'s New Year's Eve announcement of a $5-a-ton increase for structural steel.

Inland went along with the best a few days later but after U.S. Steel — under heavy administration pressure — announced only a $2.74 increase, both Inland and Bethlehem backed down. The compromise, described by Johnson as within his wage-price guidelines, set off a stock market surge.

Texas Officials Hunt Means To Prevent Killings

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — Gov. John B. Connally called a meeting with Texas law enforcement officials today to discuss the Charles Joseph Whitman homicide rampage which left 16 persons dead and 31 wounded.

Arrangements were made to fly the bodies of Whitman and his mother, the first person killed in the mass slayings, to their home town of Lake Worth, Fla., for burial.

Having cut short a Latin-American tour because of the tragedy, Connally arrived Tuesday night from Rio de Janeiro in what he described as a "shocked and saddened" condition.

The governor, who himself narrowly escaped death by gunfire when he was wounded in the Dallas assassination of President John F. Kennedy, said he would confer with Col. Homer Garrison, director of the Texas Department of Public Safety, and other state law officials.

He said he called the talks "in hopes of preventing a recurrence" of such shootings in Texas in the future.

The possibility that brain disease caused Whitman, 25, to go berserk was raised Tuesday when a surgeon who performed an autopsy reported the ex-Marine had a tumor which might have caused intense pain.

A University of Texas psychiatrist, Dr. Maurice Dean Heat-ly, disclosed that during an interview last March 29 Whitman said he thought about going up in the campus tower "with a deer rifle and shooting people."

Most of the victims in Whitman's outburst Monday were killed by rifle shots from the tower's 27th-floor level.

Dr. Heatly said Whitman, whom he described as "self-centered and egocentric," failed to keep an appointment for a further interview the following week.

The psychiatrist's assessment of Whitman's personality came as a surprise to a Dallas man who said the former Marine was his roommate at the university in 1962.

"He was not just an average nice guy — he was above average," the man, who insisted on anonymity, told an interviewer. "He was a typical all-American boy, and one of the most amiable fellows I've ever met."

"Charlie was the easiest person in the world to get along with. As a roommate, he was superb."

Dr. Heatly, however, said that in the March interview Whitman told of having "overwhelming periods of hostility with a very minimum of provocation" and admitted that he had twice beaten his wife — one of his victims.

The body of Whitman's wife, 22, who was his second victim, was sent to Rosenberg, Tex., Monday. Funeral arrangements are pending there.

Annual Wage Is Reuther's Goal

PORTLAND, Ore. (AP) — This will be the last full year of hourly wage rates in the auto industry, Walter Reuther, president of the United Auto Workers Union, told a labor audience Tuesday night.

"We're going to be paid by the year in 1967," he said in predicting success for the union's guaranteed annual wage drive. "Who got the idea that only the boss should be paid by the year?" he asked.

Union contracts with the big automobile manufacturers expire next year. The union's annual meeting in May approved the annual wage as its bargaining position.

In a news conference Reuther said he regarded talk by members of the striking Airline Machinists Union on setting up a third political party as "impractical; a reaction of frustration."

He said congressional action to end the airline strike had hazards. "You can't tamper with free collective bargaining just because of inconvenience," he said.

Soapy Hits Cavanagh With Real Thrashing

Romney Total Greater Than Ferency Vote

DETROIT (AP) — Republican Gov. George Romney won re-nomination to a third term without opposition Tuesday — but the major surprise of the gubernatorial primary was the slim vote polled by unopposed Democratic candidate Zoltan Ferency.

While the heated Democratic U. S. Senate race pulled nearly twice as many voters to the Democratic primary as the Republican, Romney still outpolled Ferency in what was only a popularity contest.

Many voters in the Democratic primary didn't even give Ferency, the party's state chairman a courtesy vote.

With 5,157 of 5,315 precincts reporting, Romney had 410,893 votes and Ferency had 361,319.

The Ferency total was less than half that polled by the two Democratic senatorial candidates — G. Mennen Williams and Jerome P. Cavanagh — an indication many Republicans and independents entered the Democratic primary to vote for Cavanagh.

Even in heavily-democratic Wayne County, Ferency managed only a 6-to-5 edge over Romney. In November, he would have to poll about 65 per cent in the county to win the statewide election.

The results pinpointed Ferency's major problem — identification. He has been touring the state in a campaign bus for weeks, and is expected to follow the pattern right through the Nov. 8 election.

Romney is not expected to begin his campaign until about Labor Day, but has already promised it will be his most vigorous yet.

Sniper Slayings Recall Bombing Of Bath Schoolhouse

MASON (AP) — Persons who call the Texas sniper slayings the biggest crime on record are overlooking the 1927 bombing of the Bath schoolhouse, which killed 45 persons, justice Roy Adams says.

Adams dug out the records Tuesday on the disaster in which Andrew Kehoe, after burning down his farm and buildings, blew up the Bath schoolhouse in Clinton County, near Lansing, killing himself in the process.

Most of the victims of the May 18, 1927, blast were children.

Under the building, Adams said, investigators later found hundreds of pounds of explosive, which had not detonated. He said Kehoe drove up in front of the building with a truck filled with explosives and detonated that.

Haiphong Oil Storage Hit Again On Tuesday

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — Helicopters ferried heavy U.S. troop reinforcements into South Viet Nam's central plateau near Cambodia today as three days of fighting against North Vietnamese forces appeared building up into a major battle.

B52s rained bombs on suspected enemy troop positions and a base camp just one mile from the Cambodian frontier as the reinforcements from the U.S. 1st Cavalry, Airmobile Division swelled the American force to 10,000 or more men.

In the air war against North Viet Nam, U.S. planes pounded the Haiphong oil depot Tuesday for the third time. North Viet Nam charged the Americans also bombed residential areas in the port city and hit a steel plant north of Hanoi Monday.

Navy pilots who attacked the Haiphong depot said the anti-aircraft fire was the heaviest they had ever encountered. "It was just like the movies," said one. One surface-to-air missile was sighted but the U.S. command said no planes were lost.

The 1st Cavalry reinforcements joined infantrymen of the U.S. 25th Division who since Monday have fought a series of short, sharp engagements with the North Vietnamese.

Senators Seek Compromise On Strike Stopper

WASHINGTON (AP) — A divided Senate today seeks a compromise course under which Congress and President Johnson would share the political blame for any order to 35,000 striking machinists to return to their jobs on five grounded airlines.

"That's the crux of it," said Senate Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen. "Who accepts the onus?"

Organized labor strongly opposes any back-to-work order. And with congressional elections four months away, Johnson has made clear that he doesn't want the assignment of issuing such an order without Congress sharing some of the responsibility.

But before the Senate now is a resolution which would require a presidential order if the 27-day walkout is to be ended for up to six months.

During the six months, efforts would be made to reach a settlement between the AFL-CIO International Association of Machinists and the five struck lines — Eastern, National, Northwest, Trans World and United. An agreement worked out at the White House last Friday was rejected Sunday by union members.

Asks Mayor's Help In Try To Unseat Griffin

DETROIT (AP) — Former Gov. G. Mennen Williams handed Jerome P. Cavanagh the thrashing of his year-old political life Tuesday and then invited the Detroit mayor to join in an attempt to unseat Republican Sen. Robert Griffin.

With the combined backing of most of Michigan's Democratic organization and nearly all of its labor leaders, Williams forged a 140,000-vote victory margin in the bitterly contested Democratic primary.

With 5,219 of 5,315 precincts reporting, Williams' vote was 433,880 against 288,203 for Cavanagh.

The former six-term governor rolled up a commanding lead in Cavanagh's hometown of Detroit and clobbered him in most outstate counties.

Williams also was nominated to meet Griffin for a brief Senate term running from Dec. 1 to Jan. 3. Griffin's appointment following the death of Sen. Patrick McNamara lasts only through Nov. 30.

Supports President Williams, 55, who returned to Michigan's political scene after five years as an assistant secretary of state, is a staunch supporter of President Johnson's administration and generally approves of the conduct of the war in Viet Nam. Cavanagh, 38, criticized some of Johnson's Viet Nam and economic policies.

Even before Cavanagh conceded defeat, Griffin dropped in at the mayor's campaign headquarters to seek his support. He did not see Cavanagh.

"I invite all of Mayor Cavanagh's supporters to join with us in making sure that there will be representation for Michigan in the Senate that is above partisanship and beyond the reach of boss control," Griffin said.

Appointed By Romney Griffin, 44, was appointed by Republican Gov. George Romney to fill the vacancy left by the death of Democratic Sen. Patrick McNamara.

Romney, unopposed in the primary, will be seeking his third term as governor in November against a vicious critic, Democratic State Chairman Zoltan Ferency.

Since Romney is expected to make a bid for the 1968 Republican presidential nomination, the nation's political pundits will be watching to see how well he fares against Ferency and whether he can help carry Griffin to victory over Williams.

Help From Washington President Johnson, Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey and Sen. Robert Kennedy, D-N.Y., are expected to head a Democratic task force into Michigan to help the former governor and blunt Romney's national political image.

Both Williams and Cavanagh indicated they would forget any hard feelings generated by the hard-fought primary in an effort to beat Griffin, who is best known as co-author of the Landrum-Griffin Labor Act.

Even though Williams already has the backing of the powerful AFL-CIO organization, labor leaders will have an extra incentive in trying to knock off the man who helped write a piece of legislation viewed with particular loathing by many union officials.

Williams' election climaxed a campaign that began as a polite sparring match but wound up a slugfest.

Rusk Explains China Border No-Bomb Zone

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of State Dean Rusk has told Congress the United States observes a no-bombing buffer zone along the North Vietnamese border with Red China "as a precaution against overrun" of Chinese territory.

In testimony before a House Appropriations subcommittee on May 11, made public today, Rusk also denied emphatically that the United States was drawn into the Viet Nam War by its economic and military assistance to that Southeast Asian country in earlier years.

Rusk said the United States decided in the administration of President Harry S. Truman that security of Southeast Asia from Communist conquest was essential to the security of the non-Communist world and that succeeding presidents had affirmed and acted on this basic policy.

When the United States intervenes in a foreign land, Rusk said, it does so for security reasons, not because of aid programs. He said the president may act even where no alliance exists, as President Dwight D. Eisenhower did in sending troops to Lebanon in 1958.

"We do not go around looking for business in terms of making alliances through an aid program rather than by a more formal process," Rusk said.

Before the Senate now is a resolution which would require a presidential order if the 27-day walkout is to be ended for up to six months.

Industrial Jobs Outside U.S. Bring Rewards

An industrial job assignment outside the United States is an opportunity to learn, Robert Beaudoin of Escanaba and Stockholm, told the Rotary Club at its luncheon meeting Tuesday.

The meeting was held at Rotary Camp Harstad, a camp for crippled and handicapped youngsters of the area, sponsored by the Rotary Club.

Beaudoin is managing director of Minnesota Mining and Manufacturing Co., St. Paul, Minn., in Stockholm, Sweden, and with his wife and two children spends the summers at their cottage on the Ford River shore.

"Our place is near your camp for the crippled children. We go for a walk along the shore and we can see the good work that is being done at Rotary Camp Harstad," Beaudoin reported.

Challenge, Reward Isadore Stein, president of the Rotary Club, introduced the speaker, who graduated from Escanaba High School in 1940, served four years in the U. S. Air Corps, and received his degree from the University of Michigan. Beaudoin joined 3M on graduation and became a part of its international division 10 years ago.

He was first with the firm in Germany, England and France, then was assigned to Germany where he met and married a German girl. He is now managing director in Stockholm, and also is in charge of the firm's electrical products division for all of Europe.

Industrial job assignment outside the United States offers a more responsible position usually than that to be found at home, Beaudoin pointed out. There is more challenge, more responsibility, and therefore greater reward.

There is increased opportunity to learn new methods and to experience new situations in production and marketing, he continued. "You learn that an acceptable American marketing method is not always acceptable in Europe."

Flowers And Drinks Europe has no unemployment and the money market is tight, with interest on industrial expansion loans at 9 percent in Sweden, he reported. American industry, however, through its operations in Europe is bringing more money back to the United States than it spends there.

Social customs of the people are learned through residence there, and many are pleasant indeed—as for example the German custom of using flowers as a message of appreciation in accepting invitations. "Their use of flowers has a meaning that we do not know here," he said.

The practice of being on time for business or social occasions is also correct, and unlike the hard drinking before dinner in America the Europeans imbibe as they eat—"which makes for a longer and more congenial evening."

How They Feel Assignment overseas assists in bringing together peoples of several nations and understanding that war is disastrous and that hopefully nations may yet learn to live together.

"No one I have met in Europe feels we have any reason to be involved in Viet Nam," said Beaudoin. "This feeling was most pronounced in Sweden, with its neutral tendencies. I feel that we do belong in Viet Nam, but I am giving you the opinion Europeans expressed to me."

Finally, employment in other countries brings renewed appreciation for the gift of being an American, Beaudoin said.

Exchange Club Plans Auction

Plans for the third annual auction sale to be held at the U. P. Fairgrounds were discussed Tuesday evening at the Escanaba Exchange Club meeting at the House of Ludington.

Co-chairmen for this year's sale will be Bob Abb and William Daniels.

The exhibition building at the Fairgrounds has been selected for the site due mainly for the convenience of the public. A larger selection of items to be sold and a greater demand by the public has necessitated the move to larger quarters this year.

Four days of bargaining will be offered on two different weekends. Dates scheduled for the sale are Sept. 10-11 and also Sept. 17-18 with starting time to be 1 p. m. on each sale day.

The Exchange Club will call upon the public for donations from door to door on Saturday Aug. 27. Method of pickup will be the same as the "Rags to Riches" pickup. Articles on porches or at the curb will be picked up by Club members.

As in past years, the Escanaba Exchange Club holds the auction of new and used articles to aid in their projects. The main items are the Dental Clinic for the under privileged children of Delta County and also the furnishing of the John F. Kennedy School for Retarded Children.

Encouraging Industry

It occurs to us, as we watch and encourage the efforts of UPCAP, Operation Action-U.P. and other economic development efforts in the Upper Peninsula, that one of the most forceful agencies in this field doesn't get proper attention.

This is the labor unions. While they are not usually thought of as creators of industry, they supply it with labor, one of its most basic needs, and the attitude of its labor toward any specific industry is a strong factor in its success or failure.

Labor in the Upper Peninsula is in a state of change. The declining need for unskilled workers has affected it strongly. It has also undergone a change from a labor surplus area to one where the jobs and workers are about in balance, or with a little labor shortage beginning to show.

There has been a definite shortage of labor for woods work, but this is a situation where some workers chose to be unemployed rather than work in the woods.

Training for industrial jobs has become an accepted part of the Upper Peninsula economic picture, sponsored both by government education and by industry. This is a step in the process that produces a skilled labor force, one of the most valuable economic assets any community can have.

Once created, the skilled labor force must be maintained to replace retirees and departing workers, and it must constantly be reschooled to cope with new techniques and new machinery. And, somehow, it should be able to attune itself to its employment if it is to be happy and productive and competitive. It must, finally, be competitive with work forces engaged in similar production elsewhere or its employers are seriously handicapped.

This competition consists not only of skills and productivity, but also of morale: the willingness to give a little extra and to make things go. Lucky the community—and lucky the work force—which is Gung-ho, united and willing and spirited. This is a complex, fragile quality. It can go a long way to compensate for lack of economic advantages. The lack of it can be a serious handicap for an industry and a community.

In neighboring Wisconsin, University Research Center, Inc., recently made a study of 115 firms in 11 industries which revealed serious anticommunity attitudes among employees. The report said the companies studied could expect more intensive union organizing drives in nonunion plants and more union militancy in organized plants.

The study found that the managements were so busy with work—much of it war work—that they unknowingly antagonized employees by not listening to their complaints and grievances. "People problems received sporadic attention, at best, in most of the Wisconsin companies surveyed," the Research Center reported. "These problems accumulate and antagonism toward the company is the result."

Exhausting and continuous overtime had disrupted the family lives of employees and few managements had bothered to explain that much of such work was indirectly generated by the war effort. Many companies were installing new machinery to make up for labor shortages and employees feared that after the boom their jobs would be gone.

Everyone has heard that one: "You're working yourself out of a job." By now it should be apparent that if that could be done it would have been done long ago, but it still seems to be able to create uncertainty and distrust and antagonism.

The most complained-about fault of management was that it was so busy that it couldn't stop to listen to many little problems that arise in every factory situation. Personnel people and foremen were expected to report to management on employee sentiment, but management was so bogged trying to meet production quotas that it couldn't take the time to listen to the troubles of its employees.

Somewhat it had better find time, and the employees, on their part, must consider the war and inflation-compounded problems that management works under today.

It is a neglected truth that industry today needs much better internal communications.

Luci Fields Questions

By WASHINGTON STAFF
WASHINGTON — (NEA) — Observers were highly impressed by Luci Baines Johnson's style at the recent press party when she announced she and fiancé Patrick Nugent had rented an "old brick" duplex in Austin, Tex. Though Luci appeared relaxed and easy, she was always in command of the situation.

When a reporter asked if a Secret Service agent would be guarding her while she and Pat were attending classes in Austin, Luci answered: "A law was enacted while my father was vice president which covers Secret Service protection for members of the president's family. You'll have to check that for the answer."

Another reporter, who apparently had already read the law, quickly interjected: "Will he live in the duplex with you and Pat?"

Luci, unperturbed, simply waited for the next question.

Defense Secretary Robert McNamara's cost-reduction program is under heavy fire in the Pentagon. Some critics claim his savings are "phony," illustrating the contention by this apocryphal story:

McNamara's son came home and proudly announced he had saved 25 cents. "Instead of riding the bus," he said, "I ran home beside it."

"That's great," replied McNamara. "Tomorrow save $1.50. Run home beside a taxi."

In a slightly different vein, someone ticked this notice on a Pentagon bulletin board:

June 20, 1976—Defense officials have lauded Gen. George

JACKSON AP—Two queens are sharing the Jackson County Fair's thrones this week.

It was decided that Christina Matson, 19, and Linda Olierich, 18, both of Jackson, would share the honors. Each girl received the full complement of the queen's gifts and prizes.

HOST

Late in May, 1966, there appeared an article and picture of Stanley Becker, age 16, on the editorial page of the Press.

Stanley was the boy from Dewitt, Mich., who had traced his ancestry back as far as Noah. After getting back seven or eight generations he had the benefit of the Roosevelt family tree, and still farther back there were books in England carrying the story back to Bible times.

I wrote to Stanley. He answered. I wrote again and he wrote that his family was coming to the U.P. for their vacation (a trip which included Isle Royale). On July 30 they would be staying at the Brotherton Motel, near Escanaba; could they come to Cornell and visit us for a few hours in the evening? The outcome was that I invited them for supper, asking them to bring part of the food, and they came.

Music and art were of interest to both families, so genealogy took a backseat for the evening.

THE BOY'S father, Dr. Becker, is a bacteriologist with the State Health Department. He wore braces on both legs, due to polio attack. I asked the Doctor if he did all the climbing and sight-seeing that his wife and children did on these trips. Mrs. Becker explained that he took part in just about everything.

I was so happy to see interesting, quiet, and, above all, well-behaved children. Sherry, aged 10, wants a horse to care for and to ride. Gary, just turned 12, is the art enthusiast. A 17 year old sister, Sylvia, started work recently to earn money for college this fall, so she couldn't be with them, on this, their first trip across the Straits. She is enrolled at Adrian College.

OUR SON Harry took Stanley for a walk along the Escanaba River, so he could see the rock formation under the south bank. This is entirely hidden from view if you walk along the top of the bank where most people are apt to walk.

The two men talked the economics of farming, and Dr. Becker saw his first hay unloading sling. His background is that of having been farm-born and farm-raised.

Mrs. Becker's favorite interests are art and sewing. I also learned from her how Stanley got in the limelight with his genealogy study and we discussed the fine art of "bringing up children."

It was soon ten to ten. They feared they couldn't find their way back to the hotel because of the strange curviness of our road (426). When they were all ready to go, even in the car, I said "I forgot to show you my fossil frog." I then did show it to them by dim car light. I also forgot to show them Mrs. Terrien's poetry, my Aztec book and so many other things.

We hope we have helped to give them an idea of what it is like to live in the Upper Peninsula.

Mrs. Elmer Nelson Cornell

AUTO SAFETY

In 1906, 1,208 Americans died in railroad crashes and the nation was profoundly disturbed.

We now have highway and auto safety legislation that has been passed unanimously by the Senate and it is almost certain that the House will take similar action shortly.

Here's what the Senate-passed legislation does:

1. Directs the Secretary of Commerce to draw up auto safety standards by Jan. 31, 1967. These would be binding on auto manufacturers within one year of that date unless the firm can make a convincing case why it needs more time.

The safety regulations will be performance standards, not design specifications. For example, they may specify the measurable performance of a braking system but will not describe how it shall be made. So manufacturers will be free to compete in developing designs that meet or surpass the standard.

2. Car buyers will get manufacturer certificates showing that the auto meets federal standards.

3. Manufacturers would be required to notify new car buyers of any safety defect that turns up after the model has gone on the market. The defect will have to be corrected.

4. Federal grants, financed from highway trust funds, will be provided for state-conducted research into other factors affecting auto safety, such as highway design and driver education.

5. The Commerce Department will study used-car inspection programs in the states that have them and report back to Congress within a year with recommendations on how inspection programs can be encouraged and effected in all the states.

This is strong legislation — and effective.

U. S. Senator

DANGEROUS

Enclosed is a clipping from the Milwaukee Journal. I think an editorial about the dangers of using these different types of "floatation" devices might possibly eliminate such a tragedy from this area.

I have personally witnessed a large number of young persons using them in the Gladstone area, particularly in unsupervised areas. If a survey were made I wouldn't be surprised to find that most of the users of these floatation devices are poor swimmers or non-swimmers, and the majority of them who fall back on these devices never become good or experienced swimmers.

MILWAUKEE—Three swimmers, including one who was riding an inner tube that suddenly sprang a leak, drowned Wednesday in Wisconsin.

Miss June Hamilton, 18, Kenosha, drowned in Lake Michigan. Authorities said she and a companion were floating in separate inner tubes 100 yards off shore near Kenosha when Miss Hamilton's tube started sinking. They said the girl panicked when the tube sank and she tumbled in the water before disappearing.

WESTERN MUSIC

I think almost everyone here "Letters To The Press" so I would like to tell everyone who likes country and western music about a few good TV programs that they may not know about.

Every Friday night, WLUC, Channel 11, carries a show called "Mid-Western Hayride" from 9 to 10 o'clock. WFRV, Channel 5, carries two every Sunday afternoon from 12:30 to 1 o'clock. "Mid-West Jambo-ree" with all the top Grand Ole Opry stars, and every day from 11:30 to noon, a new show called "Swinging Country."

A few weeks ago the Harder Trio were at Ishpeming and I understand that there will be a country show at Munising this month. Will Escanaba be having a show of this type? After looking through the U. P. State Fair book it looks like we won't have a country show this year.

A few years back Hank Snow was at our fair and the grandstand was filled. Why didn't they continue to get top country artists? Most people will travel far and pay a lot to see someone they'd really like to see.

Q—Who was the first chief justice of the United States?

A—John Jay.

Q—In what country did modern boxing originate?

A—Modern prize fighting began with James Figg, a fighter who defeated all comers in England from 1719 to 1730. One of his successors, Jack Broughton, later made boxing a national sport.

Q—How great a variation exists in the size of birds?

A—O-triches, the largest living birds, average about 150 pounds (the greatest weight attained is about 300 pounds) while the smallest hummingbird weighs only 1 1/10 of an ounce.

Q—What discovery did Michael Faraday make which marked the beginning of the age of electricity?

A—In 1831 he moved a magnet through a coil of copper wire and found that an electric current was produced in the wire. This great discovery is the principle on which all electric motors and dynamos are built.

The Doctor Says:

By Dr. Wayne G. Brandstadt

There are two matters in connection with diabetes that need further comment. Although the jet injector, which successfully operated after a short period of training, even the cheaper models are expensive. The secret of painless injection with a needle is to have a sharp needle and insert it quickly. Disposable needles are now available. Since they are used but once they need not be resharpened.

Another boon, especially to mothers of diabetic children, is the B-D Buser Automatic Injector. It is placed at the point to be injected and a spring is released which insures speedy insertion of the needle. It is easy to operate and should be available through any large drug company. The price is $7.50.

The other matter is the availability of all diabetics owning a good diabetic manual. One that can be recommended is "How to Live With Diabetes," by Dolger and Seeman (W. W. Norton, Price $4.50) which was revised in 1965.

My only criticism of the book — a minor one — is that in the chapter on complications there is no mention of diabetic retinitis, which may lead to blindness, or diabetic neuritis, and very little about diabetic gangrene of the toes.

Q — What harmful effects can Chloromycetin have on a person who has taken it for over a year?

A—Chloramphenicol (Chloromycetin) is an antibiotic that is effective against a number of disease germs. If extended treatment is required, a switch to another antibiotic should be made. Prolonged treatment with chloramphenicol destroys the blood-forming ability of the bone marrow and causes a reduction in both white and red blood cells. Anyone taking this drug for more than two weeks should have frequent blood counts.

Q — I am allergic to horse serum. What is the difference between toxin and antitoxin? Can they be fatal?

A — Toxin is the poison produced by disease germs. It can be fatal. Antitoxin is an immunizing agent. Most antitoxins are made by injecting toxins into a horse and refining the horse's serum after the horse has produced a high concentration of antitoxin. If you are allergic to horse serum a large dose of antitoxin could be fatal. Your doctor would know whether any injection he wished to give you contained horse serum and he could substitute a different antitoxin. Before doing so he could test you for allergy to the substitute serum.

Walk-Out On Boss Shows Good Sense

Dear Ann Landers: I am an average looking woman in my 30's. I wear glasses and store-bought uppers, but I'm a whale of a good secretary—presently unemployed.

Yesterday the boss's wife telephoned me at the office and accused me of making a play for her husband. I went right to my boss, told him about the phone call, packed my pencils, and left that very hour. The boss was floored. I might add.

I have never before walked off a job. It's always a mess when someone leaves without notice and I felt terrible about it but I just didn't feel that I could stay another day.

Did I do the right thing? My husband says I did. I'm not so sure. Perhaps I should have written the wife off as a nut, (which she most assuredly is), and hung on to my job. Please comment.—FORMER SEC.

Dear Former: You did the right thing. If your boss had urged you to stay, you should have done so, but since he did not, you were wise to leave.

A whale of a good secretary should have no trouble finding another job—and a more loyal boss. He let you down miserably.

Dear Ann Landers: I plan to be married in October. This evening my aunts asked me if I had decided on the members of the wedding party. I said, "I haven't asked her yet but of course Bess will be my maid of honor." We've been best friends, since childhood.

There was a chorus of "No, you can't have her for obvious reasons!" Bess is a polio cripple. She wears a brace on her leg and walks with a cane. One of my aunts said, "It will take her three times as long to get down the aisle and she won't be able to keep time to the music."

I was boiling inside at first and determined to have Bess as my maid of honor even if I had to wheel her down the aisle myself. Now I'm undecided. I discussed this with my friends this morning and they say my aunts are right. What do you say?—FELICIA

Dear Felicia: Quit shopping for opinions and use your own judgment. You sound more sensible than your moronic friends and your dizzy aunts. Tell them in unmistakable terms that Bess is your choice and then tell her.

Dear Ann Landers: Last year when I was 15 mom decided I was old enough to manage my own money and buy my own clothes. I was very happy with the idea.

The first six months were a mess. I bought all the wrong things. When an important occasion came up I never had anything decent to wear. I asked mom for help but she said, "It's your problem. Work it out yourself."

Well, I did work it out. I went to my home economics teacher and she gave me some great advice and my wardrobe really took shape.

A few months ago mom started to bring home "bargains" for me. Everything she picks looks lousy. Her "bargains" don't go with my other things, but I have to pay for them anyway. Last month 50% of my allowance went for her goofs.

Dad backs her up and I'm really burned. Is this fair?—W. M.

Dear W. M.: No it is not fair and I am backing you up.

You should not be forced to accept your mother's selections. If she wants to give you an occasional "bargain," O.K., but to make you pay for it is unjust.

Light Vote In Delta Hints Of GOP Switches

Delta County balloting in Tuesday's primary apparently sent many Republican voters over the line to vote Democratic for Detroit Mayor Jerome Cavanagh in his contest with former Governor G. Mennen Williams for the Democratic nomination for U. S. senator.

In the state Williams led Cavanagh about 10 to 7 to win the nomination and a face-off with Republican Senator Bob Griffin in the Nov. 8 election, but he didn't do nearly that well in Delta. Here the vote was Williams 1,450 to 1,236 for Cavanagh with all 27 precincts reported.

There was no contest on the Republican primary ticket here and so no occasion to vote Republican except to elect delegates to the county convention and there were no nominees on the ballot for that election so there was general disinterest.

Romney Vote Light

Gov. George Romney, heading the Republican ticket for renomination to a third term, polled only 941 votes in the county, compared with 1,615 for Zoltan Ferency, the Michigan Democratic state chairman and candidate for governor. Two years ago in the Sept. 1, 1964 primary when Romney was opposed for the Republican nomination by George Higgins, he polled 3,124 votes in Delta County, 280 more than the total received by Neil Staebler, the Democratic candidate.

His vote then was more than three times his unopposed total on Tuesday and on the other hand Ferency, who nearly doubled him here, was shy 1,000 Democratic votes that showed up in the U. S. Senate contest, divided between Williams and Cavanagh.

The situation gives support to the belief that a sizeable number of Republican voters Democratic and for Cavanagh. This was done in an effort to knock off Williams, although Senator Griffin had said he'd rather face Williams than Cavanagh, as his record was much more vulnerable.

Romney carried only five of the 27 Delta precincts and Williams carried 19.

Cleaver Gains

The Associated Press reported that with only 166 of the 11th District's 473 precincts reported, Congressman Raymond Cleaver (D-Sault Ste. Marie) had 10,319 votes, and Atty. Frank Hook, Ironwood, his Democratic opponent for renomination to a second term, 1,976. Philip Ruppe of Houghton, the unopposed Republican candidate had 6,123.

Delta County gave Cleaver 2,025 where it gave him only 1,678 votes in the 1964 primary while giving Republican Victor Knox 2,901. In Tuesday's election it gave 449 to Hook and 827 to Ruppe.

How many of Hook's votes were anti-Cleaver and how many were Republican cross-overs to bollix up the Democrats in their primary can't be known until the Nov. 8 election indicates the true strength of the two parties in local balloting.

Cleaver took 23 of Delta's 27 precincts, scoring very heavily in areas like Wells Township, where he polled 374 to 72 for Hook and 37 for Ruppe, a 10 to 1 margin with even his Democratic challenger scoring nearly twice as much as the Republican entry.

Schneider Wins

Indian River mortician A. M. Schneider, who was the Democratic nominee for 37th District senator in 1964 won again on Tuesday, defeating Earl Walker of Strong, retired storekeeper and former Chippewa supervisor. He will oppose incumbent Republican State Senator Thomas Schweigert of Petoskey on Nov. 8, who was unopposed for renomination.

Delta gave 1,001 votes to Schneider, 889 to Walker and 797 to Schweigert.

State Representative Einar Erlandsen, Escanaba, was unopposed for Democratic renomination for a 10th term in the 107th District and received 1,883 votes in Delta compared to 717 for Charles Varnum, Manistique school teacher, who was unopposed for the Republican nomination.

The voting was very light, reflecting small interest in the election except for the senator race between Williams and Cavanagh.

Delta cast 3,449 Republican votes in the 1964 primary and 2,944 Democratic votes for a total of 6,393 and it cast only 2,556 votes in the governor contest on Tuesday, 1,615 Democratic and 941 Republican. The senate race total was 3,499, with 2,686 split between the Democratic contestants and 813 for Griffin.

There are about 15,000 registered voters in Delta County so about 20 per cent of electors voted Tuesday.

Sedenquist Wins Wells Nomination

Incumbent Wells Township Supervisor Charles Sedenquist easily won the Democratic nomination for another term in Tuesday's primary election.

Sedenquist, chairman of the Board of Supervisors, polled 318 votes to 182 for Clarence G. Sturdy as Wells Township provided the most action in an otherwise dull township primary election in Delta County.

Clerk Alfred P. Groos also won the Democratic nomination by a 291-176 margin over challenger Mary Ann Derouin.

In the six-man treasurer's race, John T. Way outdistanced the field by drawing 122 votes. John N. Kroll was second with 109. Lawrence Klug had 106. Leonard VanDresse 75. Elmer J. Johnson 61 and Richard Schmeltzer 34.

All of the candidates were Democrats.

Clarence Sundquist turned back Ivan Harbath's bid for renomination as trustee, 349-122.

Only Four Contests

Only four of 14 townships in Delta County had contests in the primary election and even in Wells Township, which had a total of 12 candidates for four officers, there were no Republicans on the ballot.

In Nahma Township, Supervisor Maurice LaVigne (D) defeated Carl D. Mercier (D) for the Democratic nomination and LaVigne Bennett (D) incumbent treasurer, turned back the challenge of Laura Mercier (D), 82-41.

Incumbent trustee Hector Gagnon was rejected in his bid for renomination on the Democratic ticket, losing to Eugene Johnson 77-42. Theodore Sundin was unopposed for the Democratic nomination for clerk and polled 101 votes.

There were no Republican candidates in Nahma Township.

In the only other Township contests Tuesday, George A. Choler defeated Richard A. Shilney 32-7 for the Republican nomination for trustee in Ford River Township, and Harold Stern drew 12 votes to eight for Jason Groll to win the Republican nomination for trustee in Fairbanks Township.

Choler will be opposed in November by Nicholas Brayak Jr., who drew 82 votes as an unopposed Democrat for trustee in Ford River. There were no Democrats on the ballot for trustee in Fairbanks Township.

Voters Defeat Millage Raise In Schoolcraft

MANISTIQUE — Schoolcraft County voters rejected a proposal to raise the tax rate limitation from 15 mills to 18 mills, 2 to 1, on Tuesday. This would have been equally divided between the county school districts and a minor amount to township government and intermediate school district.

The vote was 572 yes to 1062 no. The proposal didn't gain a majority anywhere.

Two proposals to amend the charter were defeated. The vote was 206 yes to 401 no to remove special assessment limitation of 50% of property valuation. For permitting installation purchases by the city, the vote was 300 yes, 306 no.

JOHN BESSE, president of the new Northern Michigan Spliced Veneers, Inc., of Gladstone is pictured with a veneer splicing machine manufactured by the Diehl Co. of Wabash, Ind., which is among the equipment being installed in the firm's plant in Gladstone's Industrial Park. (Escanaba Daily Press Photos)

THIS BIG WATERPROOF container from Darmstadt, Germany contains a 10 foot knife jointer valued at $24,000 which will be installed in the plant of Northern Michigan Spliced Veneers, Inc., in Gladstone. The plant is now being readied for operation and a work force is being trained.

Gladstone Adds Industry

New Plant Splices Veneer

GLADSTONE — John Besse, president of Northern Michigan Spliced Veneers, Inc., a recently formed Michigan corporation, announces opening of the corporation's plant in Gladstone. The building, providing 9,000 square feet, was formerly the Atlas Plywood Corp. prefinish plant, and for a while was occupied by Eaton Yale & Town, Inc. It is in the Gladstone Industrial Park.

Northern Spliced Veneers will produce spliced hardwood veneers of birch, maple, oak, elm, walnut, and pecan. Veneer will be obtained from local area sources, as well as Canada and other sections of the United States. Shipments will be made to outlets in Michigan, Wisconsin, Oregon, Washington, and the southeastern part of the country.

The veneers are cut from turning logs in a rotary direction against a knife, thereby slicing the wood off in a thin sheet. It is then clipped into various grades and component widths and dried. After drying, it is graded and spliced (glued together edge to edge) to standard widths. These sheets are then bonded together with adhesive to form plywood. The most common of hardwood plywood construction is 3 ply, with a thin face on each side and a thicker center ply.

Hardwood plywood is used primarily for wall paneling, kitchen cabinets, flush door faces, and furniture construction. The Company will start production with a work force of 25 people and expects to raise the employment to 40 in the near future. The company has been assisted by UP-CAP in an on-the-job training program which will begin next week. Applications for employment are now available.

Besse, formerly manager of manufacturing for the Goodman Division of Calumet & Hecla, Inc., has held progressively responsible positions with the Indian Head Plywood Corp. and Weyerhaeuser Co. as well as providing consultant services to hardwood veneer and plywood manufacturers.

Canadian Experience From 1961 to May of 1963, he was executive vice-president and general manager of the Indian Head Plywood Corp., responsible for all phases of the company's four plants in Vermont and Maine. Besse was in

Viet Gen. Thi Seeking Office

LYNCHBURG, Va. (AP) — Lt. Gen. Nguyen Chanh Thi, ousted commander of South Viet Nam's 1st Corps area who is in the second political exile of his career, says he'll be a candidate for premier when elections are held.

Thi, a Buddhist, would not venture a guess as to his strength at the polls. But he did point out here Tuesday in an interview that 80 per cent of his country is Buddhist. The Buddhists seized on Thi's ouster four months ago as the pretext for their stormy but unsuccessful revolt against Premier Nguyen Cao Ky.

Thi would not say what chances he believes Ky would have in free elections. The premier has said he will not be a candidate and will return to the South Vietnamese air force, which he still commands.

Olsen & Flath Given Contract For 2 Schools

Three Delta County firms—including two from Escanaba—were awarded contracts Tuesday to construct and finish two new elementary schools by the Escanaba Area Board of Education.

Action was taken to insure that the schools at Franklin and Southside sites are ready for occupancy by the start of the 1967-68 school year.

General contract was awarded to Olsen & Flath of Escanaba for $397,708. The mechanical contract went to Berger & Robinson, Escanaba, for $130,366 and the electrical contract was awarded to Rapid Electric of Rapid River for $50,784. Total of the bids was $578,858.

The Board of Education elected to accept the bid of Olsen & Flath ahead of two lower-bid contractors because of the construction time required.

Olsen & Flath will have both schools ready for children a year from September. The two other firms would require an additional 120 and 150 calendar days, respectively, and would not have the buildings ready for use until the second semester of the 1967-68 year.

"The Board of Education thought this was excessive in light of the need for the buildings in time for the 1967 school year," Supt. Luther M. Barrett explained.

Olsen & Flath had bid $416,200 on the original specifications to $414,000 for Cowell & Brosia, Inc., Iron Mountain, and $411,000 for Noah Piquette Construction, Menominee.

The Board of Education and its architect negotiated the final general contract figure with Olsen & Flath in an effort to bring total costs near to the estimated $562,000 needed when the bond issue was passed.

Changes in the original specifications included changes in tiling for floors, elimination of a special ventilating unit for the multi-purpose room, elimination of some cabinets in the kitchen, elimination of a toilet room off the office and a change in the finish on aluminum window sash.

Inclusion of sidewalks in the general contract was also eliminated.

Barrett said additional cost of the two buildings over the estimated bond issue figure will be made up by using about $15,000 in revenue from treasury bill investment of the $1,450,000 and using about $4,400 from the estimated furnishings account, which was considered excessive.

Arms Control Effort Revived

WASHINGTON (AP) — Facing a maze of roadblocks, sponsors moved cautiously today in an effort to steer gun control legislation toward Senate action in the aftermath of the Texas massacre that left 16 dead and 31 wounded.

Despite prodding by President Johnson for legislation "to help prevent the wrong persons from obtaining firearms," there appeared little likelihood of immediate action.

Sen. Thomas H. Dodd, D-Conn., author of a controversial gun control bill approved by the Senate Juvenile Delinquency Subcommittee, asked for a special meeting of the full Senate Judiciary Committee to pass on it.

If a bill comes out of the Judiciary Committee, it must go next to the Senate Commerce Committee. A member of this panel, Sen. Thurston B. Morton, R-Ky., said he believes some legislation can be worked out.

But Morton pointed out the pending bill would not have prevented Charles J. Whitman from amassing the arsenal of weapons he used in his sniper attack from the University of Texas Tower in Austin.

the alley to control the fire. Property owners and volunteers got out hoses and wet down roofs to ease the danger of additional fires starting from the flying embers. Several roof fires were put out on buildings on Minnesota Ave. and 10th St.

Swenson Brothers store, owned by Noble Swenson and his nephew, William Swenson, had been closed for the day by William Swenson at about 5:30 p.m. He left for his camp for the evening. Noble Swenson, who was in Canada on a fishing trip, returned today.

Wally's Tavern, owned by Joseph Dupuyt, was also totally destroyed by the fire.

There was much water damage to the Piggly-Wiggly store east of Swenson's. They were hopeful of reopening this afternoon.

Widespread Damage
Al Mortier's Jewelry and residence next to the Piggly-Wiggly was damaged by water; and on the other side of Wally's Tavern the Sunrise Bakery, operated by Mr. and Mrs. Norman Knutson, was damaged by water, but they were open for business today. Above the bakery the Eagles Lodge rooms, which were recently redecorated, were water damaged.

There were scorched building fronts and windows cracked by heat in business places across the street, including Stella's Cafe, and a vacant building where some furniture from Swenson's was carried to escape the fire. Other salvaged furniture was stored in the Armory.

Thousands of people gathered in the fire area during the evening. Four hours after the first alarm the last of the firemen and equipment were withdrawn.

The car is owned by James Schwartz of Wells and was reported by the owner as missing at 6:15 a. m. Tuesday. At 7:50 a. m. the State Police were informed that the juveniles with the car were at Gaylord.

Another car is reported missing. It is a black and white 1953 Ford coupe owned by Charles Cripps of Gladstone Rte. 1 and has not yet been located.

Ageless Blanda Sparks Houston Exhibition Win

By The Associated Press
There's nothing wrong with George Blanda, at 39 still one of the best quarterbacks in pro football.

Johnny Unitas and Sonny Jurgensen, two other veteran quarterbacks, try tonight to show they are okay, too.

Long Injured

GREEN BAY, Wis.—Fleet Bob Long reinjured his knee Tuesday in a practice drill and may be lost to the Packers for their Friday night clash with the College All-Stars. Coach Vince Lombardi said he did not consider the injury serious, but there was no indication whether or not Long would play Friday. Long, who was hurt earlier in practice, turned to take a pass when the knee buckled.

Blanda delighted a Houston turnout of 36,393 by passing for two touchdowns in addition to kicking four field goals and two extra points. Altogether Blanda passed for 144 yards and played what coach Wally Lemm termed a "very good game."

Who Will Be Star Among Collegians?

CHICAGO (AP)—Somehow, 68 yards for a touchdown and then grabbed a 38-yard pass from Graham for still another score as World War II players were still eligible for competition.

That name could be among such backs as Jimmy Anderson of Texas Tech, Jim Grabowski of Illinois, Roy Shivers of Utah State or line-backers Doug Buffone of Louisville, Tommy Nobis of Texas and Don Hansen of Illinois or end Aaron Brown of Minnesota.

Or somewhere along the line it might be a player who makes his way among the ranks of the unknown.

Down through the years, players who have excelled in the All-Star Game have gone to greatness in professional football.

Back in 1937, the College All-Stars dealt the Green Bay Packers a 6-0 defeat on a Sammy Baugh to Gaynell Tansley touchdown pass.

The following year Cecil Isbell of Purdue directed the All-Stars to a 28-16 triumph over Washington.

The Collegians had to wait five years for another victory and then topped the Washington Redskins 27-7 when Otto Graham intercepted a Baugh pass and ran 97 yards for a touchdown.

Graham, currently coach of the Redskins, was the All-Star coach for seven years before John Sauer became the pilot this year.

In 1946, Elroy Hirsch rambled

George Ratterman of Notre Dame became a sudden hero in 1917 as he fired a pair of touchdown passes for a 16-0 triumph over the Chicago Bears. Ratterman had been a second stringer for the Irish before proving himself in the All-Star Game.

Charles Gogolak of Princeton is the field-goal booter for the All-Stars this year. If things go right he might be the hero of the game.

Cassius Closes Workout Doors

LONDON (AP)—World heavyweight champion Cassius Clay has banned the public from his final workout today for his title fight Saturday with Britain's Brian London.

Reason for the secrecy: Spies, says Clay.

"Spectators are banned from now until fight time," Clay told newsmen.

"There are too many spies here, spies sending films and reports of my training back to Brian London."

The former British heavyweight champion said he expected to tip the scales at his best fighting weight of 196 pounds on Saturday.

Advice From Dressen Puts McLain On Track

DETROIT (AP)—A bit of fatherly advice from "No. 7" may have been just what Denny McLain needed to get back on the winning track.

No. 7—McLain's, yet reference to ailing Manager Charlie Dressen—told him to lay off the curve ball. The young right-hander took the hint and blanked the Chicago White Sox, 5-0 on four hits Tuesday night.

"He just told me to quit fooling around with the curve ball or else I'd find myself back where I started," McLain said after snapping his four-game losing streak.

"Bill Freehan and I were talking about the same thing a couple of days ago. We figured that three of the four losses I suffered came because of mistakes I made with the curve ball."

"I would say about eight of every 10 pitches were fast balls. I didn't have a real good curve but I had more than I needed with the fast ball."

McLain, who admits to going for a no-hitter every time he pitches, said he thought he "really had something going out there" Tuesday night.

The first hit off him was Pete Ward's single off Norm Cash's glove in the fourth inning.

Only one Chisox batter reached second off McLain, who had not won since he beat Minnesota on a two-hitter July 9. Jerry Adair singled in the fifth and went to second on a two-out walk to pinch-hitter Floyd Robinson.

McLain struck out all three

Houston's Wynn Out For Season

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Houston center fielder Jim Wynn, who dislocated his left elbow when he crashed into the wall at Connie Mack Stadium Monday night, will remain in St. Joseph's Hospital until Friday and then fly back to Texas.

A spokesman for the Astros said Wynn apparently will be out for the rest of the season because of the injury.

Along with 5 hits and a home run, Anna Nelson's sharp pitching helped Escanaba Machine defeat Big Boy last night. Pam Terrien added a home run, and a 7th inning double to win the game.

batters but said he was a better pitcher "because they were hitting fly balls. Seven batters were retired on balls hit into the air.

McLain got all the runs he needed when catcher Orlando McFarlane hit a two-run homer to cap a three-run Detroit fourth inning. Al Kaline doubled, reached third on a wild pitch and scored on Willie Horton's single for the second Detroit run.

Jerry Lumpe forced Horton before McFarlane took hold of a low John Buzhardt offering and blasted the ball into the upper deck in left.

Gates Brown, who homered in the eighth, singled and scored on Cash's double in the first inning.

"These two complete games back-to-back have to help in more ways than one," Acting Manager Frank Shaff said, pointing out that Earl Wilson turned the trick in the second game of Sunday's doubleheader.

"First of all, it gives our bullpen a little rest. It also gives these guys a taste of what it feels like to win again," Shaff said.

The Tigers were held to seven hits by a trio of Chicago pitchers but bunched them in their run-producing innings.

McLain, who had been ineffective since he pitched three perfect innings in the All-Star game July 12, said he had been bothered by a sore shoulder.

Marichal, Mota Join To Scramble Standings

By The Associated Press
Juan Marichal and Manny Mota, whose last get-together gave San Francisco a big scare, have held a long-once reunion...and given the Giants a big lift.

Pittsburgh's Mota, a former Giant outfielder who inadvertently put Marichal out of action a week ago, doubted home an eighth-inning run Tuesday night that gave the Pirates a 6-5 victory over Los Angeles.

Marichal, meanwhile, made first appearance for the Giants since Mota slammed a car door on his pitching hand and beat New York 5-4 for his 17th victory, tying the Dodgers' Sandy Koufax for the major league lead.

The combination of San Francisco victory and Los Angeles defeat sent the Giants back into first place in the tight National League race, one game ahead of the Dodgers and Pirates.

Misses Turn
The car-door incident occurred last Tuesday night in San Francisco, when the two longtime friends from the Dominican Republic got together after a Giants-Pirates game. The middle finger on Marichal's right hand was gashed and the Giant ace nursed his next starting turn.

His status still was uncertain until the eighth inning Tuesday night, when he came out of the bullpen to choke off a Met rally and pick up the decision on his last relief venture of the year.

Mota, whose .750 average leads the league but who has not batted enough times to qualify, also was a late-inning replacement Tuesday night. He failed as a pinch hitter in the sixth inning but came through with the deciding hit off reliever Ron Perrano's after Bill Mazeroski's single, a sacrifice and a run-scoring double by Tommy Davis.

Deron Johnson's three-run homer in the seventh snapped a 5-5 deadlock and lifted the Reds to their 13th victory in the last 16 games. Vada Pinson also homered for Cincinnati. The Cardinals stranded 14 base runners.

The Phillies won their fifth in a row, overcoming a 3-2 deficit on Cookie Rojas' two-run single in the seventh. Bob Aspromonte homered for the Astros, who have lost 10 of their last 11.

Byron Browne's two-out single in the 12th delivered the winning run for the Cubs, who had tied the score in the sixth when Don Kessinger singled after Hank Aaron lost Brown's fly ball in the sun for a triple. Aaron drove in four Atlanta runs with his 31st homer, a single and a bases-loaded walk.

Inland Project Just Starting

Inland Lime and Stone Company is planning a major improvement costing several hundred thousand dollars to increase production of smaller-sized stone.

The firm, a division of Inland Steel will install two new crushers and put in use another crusher which has been at the plant 10 years but not in use regularly.

It is expected that total production will remain about the same, but two-thirds of the tonnage will be of stone less than 2 inches in diameter, instead of two-thirds above two-inches, as at present.

Foundations Started
Excavations have been started for the project and during the summer concrete and some steel work for conveyors, docking and buildings will be done. Delivery of equipment is expected before the end of the year.

Arthur G. McKee Co. of Chicago is engineer for the project. Inland crews will do the construction in the coming winter. Pending completion of detailed studies, not all cost estimates are available.

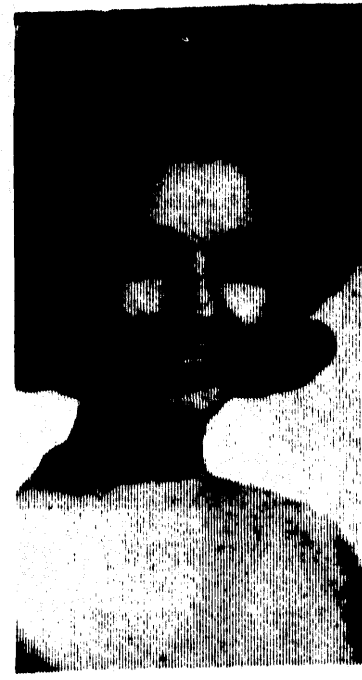

In the past five years, changing requirements have resulted in the steel industry from use of basic oxygen furnaces and pellet ore. Uniformity of burden of coke, flux and ore is sought in the blast furnaces, for increased efficiency.

Inland anticipates production of the 6-12 inch stone will diminish and that 4-6 and 2-4 inch sizes will practically disappear, being replaced by the minus 1 1/2 inch sizes. John W. Moffat, Inland Limestone vice president and general manager said.

Ready For 1967
Open hearth furnaces use stone 6 to 12 inches in size as flux to reduce pig iron and scrap to steel. Basic oxygen furnaces are replacing the open hearths and these use burned lime as flux. To burn, limestone is required to be 2 to 4-inches by some, and 1 to 1 1/2 inches by others. A majority use 1 to 1 1/2-inch size.

The new crushing units will be in the middle of the present crushing complex. Several new conveyors are to be built. One old crusher, in use since the 1930s and working to near capacity with annual increase of shipments, will be replaced.

The new equipment is expected to be ready for use by next April when the 1967 season begins.

BETTY PERRY, foster daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Vaughan, 611 Oak St., will be among the graduates of Northern Michigan University Aug. 5. She is a 1962 graduate of Manistique High School and has majored in art education. She will receive a bachelor of science degree Friday in Kaye auditorium. Miss Perry, after a vacation at home, will join the faculty of Trenton, Mich. High School where she has accepted a position as an art instructor.

Linda LaVerne Rice, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Verne Rice, 981 Manistique Ave., became the bride of Lawrence Thomas Syers, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Syers.

The Rev. Roy Pitts officiated at the double-ring ceremony July 23 at 7 p. m. in the Presbyterian Church. Donald Rose was organist and Lora Rice, soloist.

Lenora H. Tallman of Caro, a sister of the bride, was matron of honor and Lora L. Rice was bridesmaid. Richard Tallman was best man and Darryl St. John, groomsmen. Ushers were Howard Smith of Gulliver and Gary Greene, of Auburn.

Jewelry Gifts
Lois L. Rice, a sister of the bride was flower girl and Les-

The bride wore a chantrelle and organza empire A-line floor-length gown with detachable wattleau chapel train. It was fashioned with elbow length sleeves and a sabrina scalloped neckline, applique lace motifs on the skirt and train. Her fingertip veil of illusion was held with a crown of seed pearls and sequins. Red roses and trailing ivy formed the bridal bouquet. A gold cross, a gift of the bridegroom, was her only jewelry.

Reception
The attendants wore heart-beat blue peau de soie ballerina sheaths with detachable floor length peau overskirts, with matching blue open crown headpieces with circular veils. Their corsages were of tinted blue carnations and white mums. They and the flower girl who had a heartbea blue ensemble like the bride's attendants, wore single pearl strands, gifts of the bride.

The bride's mother wore an aqua nylon chiffon with fitted bodice, and full skirt. A matching aqua hat and white accessories completed the ensemble. Her corsage was of yellow roses.

The bride's great grandmother, Mrs. Eva M. Greene, attended. She wore a royal blue crepe, with elbow length sleeves, with beige accessories and a corsage of matching mums.

A reception for 250 guests was held in the K-C hall. A wedding cake made by Mrs. Walter Welch centered decorations.

After a wedding trip to an undisclosed destination the couple will live in Munising. The bride attended Manistique High School, graduating in 1965, and attended Marquette college of practical nursing. Over 100 Paintings Set For Art Fair

More than 100 paintings are expected to be exhibited when the Manistique Art Club holds its show-and-sell art fair Thursday and Friday on the MHS lawn.

The club has 33 members, some of whom were born in foreign countries and some native to this area. Nadine Purton of Switzerland, a sister of Mrs. David Beach, also added to the international accent of the club while she was here.

The club officers are Dale Cahn, president, Mrs. Harold McNamara, vice president, Mrs. Patrick LaFave, secretary, and Mrs. John Conlon, treasurer. Bruce Plichta is show chairman.

The club was organized in 1964, following a period of two winters during which Karl Krumrey conducted art classes. Nelson Shoe Store provides free quarters for the group for its Monday night meetings. A business meeting is held once a month.

Last year more than 400 visitors attended the fair.

A painting will be given away again this year. The show begins at 10 a. m., daily and continues to dusk. Non-members may exhibit for a small fee.

Romney-Kelley
Attack Federal Tax Proposal

IANISING (AP) — A tax proposal in Congress would result in substantial revenue loss to the state and tax discrimination among business, Gov. George Romney and Atty. Gen. Frank Kelley agree.

Their attack on the proposed interstate taxation act came in a telegram to Reps. John Conyers Jr., D-Mich., and Edward Hutchinson, R-Mich., both members of the House Judiciary Committee.

"This bill arbitrarily carves out vast areas of immunity and preferential treatment from state and local taxes for certain businesses at the expense of the states, their political subdivisions and the remainder of the business community," the telegram said.

And, it said, the bill would not simplify or make more uniform state and local tax laws pertaining to taxation of multistate businesses, "which is the justification for any such legislation in the first instance."

Romney and Kelley said the bill also poses serious constitutional questions.

Assistant Atty. Gen. William Dexter said the bill would limit Michigan's power to tax companies which do business in Michigan, but own no real property in the state and not have any full-time employees in the state.

Such companies, if their net income was under $1 million a year, would escape Michigan sales and use taxes, he said.

JUNGLE JEWELRY—Soft drink cans which find their way to New Guinea aren't discarded as trash when empty. Far from unwanted, the glittery, tin-coated steel cans are prized as jewelry by natives of the mountainous, jungle-covered Pacific island. Here, Brother Claude Mattingly of Cumberland, Md., with a Capuchin mission, presents two of his parishioners with new bracelets.

Carbon Paper A Secret Weapon

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP)—One of the hardest things in the world is to give credit where credit is due.
We often fail to separate the popular from the permanent. Caught up in the enthusiasms of the day, we overpraise what is faddish, fail to appreciate what has lasting worth.
Periodically, we should reassess our values to be sure we aren't preserving what it would be better to cast away—and overlooking something we should cherish before it passes.
Here, for example, is one man's list of things he feels are currently somewhat underrated:
The importance of walking to work in the morning. Anyone who does this regularly manages to exercise his own sense less anger at the world out of his system, and gets to his job in a balanced mood.

Horse-shoe pitching. No man who made horse-shoe pitching a hobby has ever been known to sell his country's secrets to a foreign power, or been convicted of piracy on the high seas.
Competitive bubblegum blowing. As long as children are engaged in seeing who can blow the biggest bubble they refrain from stealing cars, or writing profane words on sidewalks or fences.
The poetry of Henry Wadsworth Longfellow. His verse may be a bit old-fashioned, but at least it makes sense, which is more than can be said of the verse of most modern poets.
Ham and eggs. People who eat ham and eggs regularly cause far less trouble in the world than those who gulp black coffee and three aspirins for breakfast.
Short Skirts. They teach a fellow what keeps most women going: homely legs.
Merry-go-rounds. They prove you can have a good time without getting anywhere in particular.
Carbon paper. It is the secret weapon of survival of any modern civilization. The duplicating and filing away of millions of useless memos keeps thousands of business and government clerks contentedly busy, thousands who might otherwise be unemployed and walking the streets fomenting revolutions.

August 12 Marks End For Second Biggest Car Year

DETROIT (AP)—General Motors will write fine to its 1966 model production today with Ford scheduled to do likewise on Aug. 12 as the auto industry's second biggest year draws to an end.
Chrysler and American Motors have completed their 1966 model run and are awaiting the go signal for their 1967 output.
Currently, Ford continues to be the only auto company at work on 1967 models. Its Windsor, Mich. plant has been building '67 Thunderbirds and Lincolns for the past two weeks.
GM's Cadillac division was scheduled to wind up its 1966 work today with Pontiac division due to end the 66 run a day later.
Next week will bring a flurry of activity as 11 more plants begin work on 1967 models.
These include six Chrysler plants, three Ford units, and two GM units.
American Motors, which ended its 1966 model production July 1, has not set a resumption date but it is expected to be about Aug. 15.
